Subject: Info RE: May Day in Downtown
Date: Friday, April 28, 2017 12:55:36 PM

Greetings,

As you know, May Day Marches are coming up on Monday 5/1. Downtown will be very active and population estimates are expected to reach into the hundreds of thousands. Wanted to help share information of which streets in particular are expected to be closed.

Streets with confirmed marches along them include:

7th St between 110 FWY and Hill St
Hill St between 7th St and Temple Ave
Broadway between Olympic Blvd and Temple Ave
Main St between Olympic Blvd and Temple Ave
1st St between Hill St and Main St

Details of confirmed marches and rallies:

One march departing MacArthur Park will march into Downtown along 7th Street east to Pershing Square, then Hill Street north to City Hall/Grand Park. ETA 11:30am - 1:00pm

One march, "May Day March & Rally 2017" will depart Olympic/Broadway and head north on Main St, turn onto 1st St towards Spring and end in front of City Hall/Grand Park. Assembly begins at 8:00am, march begins at 11:00am onward

One march, "Build Bridges not Walls - Stop Raids" will depart Olympic/Broadway and head north on Broadway to City Hall/Grand Park. Assembly begins at 8:00am, march begins at 12:00pm onward

A stationary rally will take place on the South lawn of City Hall from 10am to 10pm

Across the street, a stationary Trump supporter rally will be in front of the LAPD headquarters.

Marches are permitted to last until 6pm.

A friendly reminder to spread the word to local stakeholders, residents, and employees.

Have a good weekend,

Ari, Megan, and Lilie
